The importance of teams

We believe the team is the center of the universe:

- They are dedicated to a single goal
- They choose the members
- They self-organize around problems, not predefined roles
- They share everything
  - Responsibility & Accountability
  - Success & Failure

The makeup of your team can influence:

- Your performance & pay
- Your overall happiness
- ... and about a million other things

So form and nurture your teams with great care...
