

I have some questions for you...

1. How do you know that something is ready to be worked?

1. What does ready mean?

1. What could happen if we disagree on what ready means?

Definition of Ready (DoR)

“Product Backlog items that can be done by the Scrum Team within one Sprint are deemed ready for selection...after refining activities.”

— Scrum Guide